

Thanks for your interest in this one-of-a-kind writing opportunity!

In these 2 short pages, you'll find everything you need to know. Let's get started...

The Quick & Dirty Details:

We're currently hiring 5+ new dating ghostwriters to get dates for our clients on sites & apps like Match, OkCupid, Tinder, and Bumble. (To learn more about how VIDA Select helps people find love, feel free to visit our website here.)

You will earn more depending on your performance, you'll earn somewhere between US $13 and $18 per hour. And you'll do this from the comfort of your own home. It's fun, flexible and rewarding.

Here's What You'll Do:

- Craft honest, charming profiles that grab the reader's attention right from the start and holds it as she reads every last word.
- Come up with creative, eye-catching icebreaker messages that can be used over and over again.
- Handle the back-and-forth messages with your client's matches until you get a phone number or set up a date.

Are You Right For The Job?

- Do you have top-notch writing skills and a great sense of humor?

Ideally, you even know a thing or two about how to represent yourself in the modern dating age. Or worst case, you find it all fascinating and can't wait to learn what works best!

- Are you looking for long-term writing work you'll truly enjoy with the opportunity for growth?

If you'd love to have a stable and predictable source of writing income for years to come, this could be for you. We're only looking for long-term additions to our team who are ready to consistently clock 20+ hours per week.

- Do you have excellent time management and organization skills?

You absolutely must be reliable, self-motivated type who works well without supervision. Otherwise, it will never work. VIDA Select is a virtual company and the hours you work will be relatively flexible, but it's daily work and there are strict deadlines.

Creative Writer Job Information

Profile writing work is completely flexible, as long as you can meet our 24- to 48-hour deadline. And you could just write profiles.

However, if you want to handle the back-and-forth messaging for your clients, it has to be done during specific windows of time. Specifically, since our clients work during the day, we send their messages outside of office hours. That's why you'll be writing during the evenings from Monday through Thursday. Friday and Saturdays will be your nights to hang out with friends, as we handle messaging during the day. Sundays are big days for online dating and you'll need to be available accordingly.

- Would you love helping your clients get better dates and meet their ideal partner?

If you'd love to be able to change lives for the better...
If you'd like to help people who deserve love finally find it...
And if you'd like to get paid to do all of this for a long time to come...
Then you're the type of person we'd love to have on our team!

Here's How To Apply:

If you'd like the chance to join our team, the next step is to complete a short, fun and easy writing test that we use to evaluate your skills.

We've found through much trial and error that the best way to predict a writer's success at VIDA Select is by directly testing his/her ability to produce the quality and style of writing that we need.

In order to begin the writing test, simply click on this link.

Important: Please be READY to complete the test at the very moment you access the link. It is a timed test with 35 minutes max to deliver, and the clock will start ticking right away.

If you have any pressing questions, please email our HR Coordinator Nicole at: nicole.asas@vidaselect.com. She may not be able to offer an immediate response, but she always does her best to reply quickly.

Once we've reviewed your test, we'll be in touch...

IMP: Please note that due to the current global pandemic, the job starts out very part time (approximately 10 hours per week), and then as the economy stabilizes it will turn into a proper part-time job. (approximately 20-25 hours per week).
